URBAN ENTREPRENEUR FORUM

Urban grocers, Dora Walmsley and Deirdre Kane, opened 52nd Street Market with a working capital loan from Bridgeway Capital.

Get ready to capitalize on the many opportunities in urban areas for small businesses by participating in the Ignite Erie Urban Entrepreneur Forum.

Bridgeway Capital, City of Erie, Gannon SBDC, and Erie County Gaming Revenue Authority are teaming up to help you build your business. We want to motivate, support, and finance urban entrepreneurs who will boost economic activity in inner-city Erie through small business success.

The forum is open to the public and will feature expert insights on:

- Obtaining financing to start or grow a small business
- Gaining skills to become more capable and confident
- Networking with experienced business specialists

Learn how to secure the loans and know-how needed to turn your aspirations into a thriving small business, and gain an understanding of how small business success will elevate the economic vitality and quality of life in Erie's inner-city neighborhoods.
